

DETAILED GRADUATION RATE DISCLOSURE

Westminster College is pleased to provide detailed information regarding our graduation rates. The information is provided in compliance with the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended.

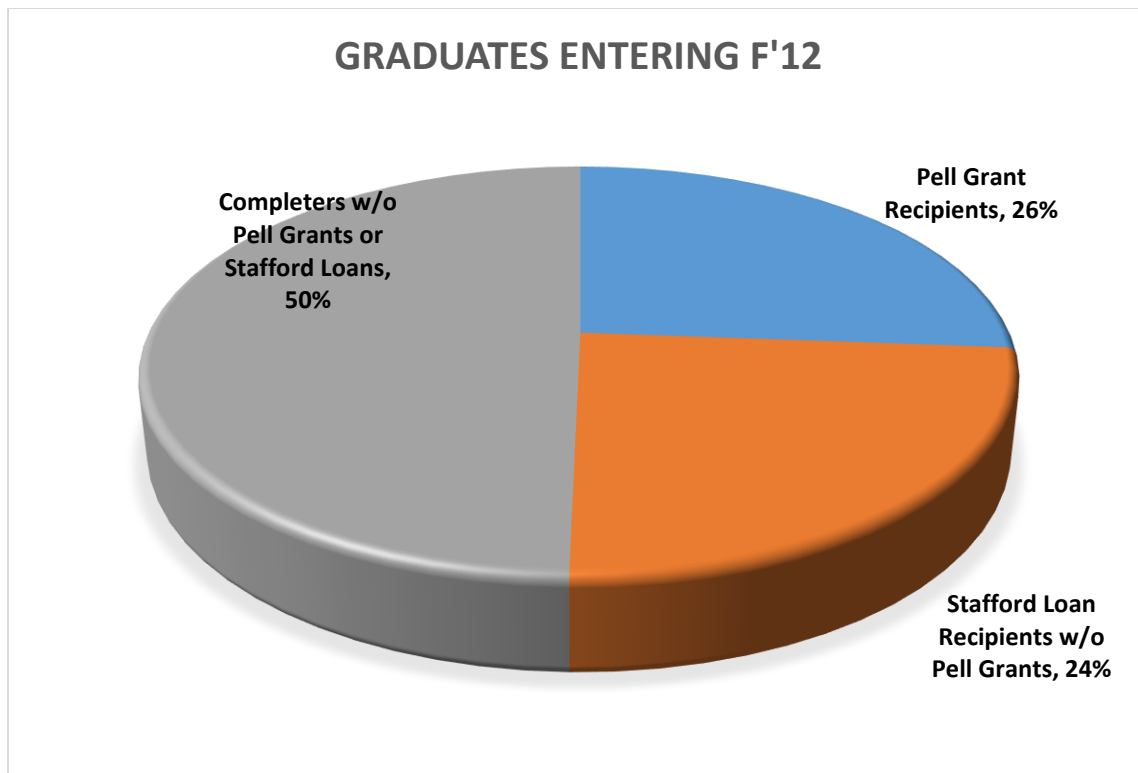

During the fall 2012 semester, 259 first-time, full-time, degree-seeking undergraduate students entered Westminster College. After 6 years (as of August 31, 2018), 58% of these students had graduated from our institution.

Seven percent (7%) of the students entering Westminster as first time freshmen in fall 2012 who completed degrees self-reported as members of minority racial or ethnic groups.

Fifty percent (50%) of the students entering Westminster as first time freshmen in fall 2012 who completed degrees received Pell Grants and/or Stafford Loans in their first year on campus.

Questions related to this information should be directed to:
Sarah Parsons, Director of Institutional Research, Westminster College at sarah.parsons@westminster-mo.edu.